

Make Planning Great Again

Joint Planning Law Conference

Connecting the professions dissecting the issues

The 45th annual Joint Planning Law Conference (the JPLC - known as 'the Oxford conference') will once again bring together leading experts from across the four key professions in planning.

Attended each year by town planners, chartered surveyors, solicitors, barristers and developers with an interest in planning and environmental issues, the JPLC provides the setting for vibrant multi-disciplinary discussion of the latest issues affecting the planning industry.

Learn

The conference offers a full programme with presentations from high-quality speakers, followed by opportunities for questions and discussions. Every speaker prepares an original, in-depth research paper which is distributed first to delegates at the conference. These papers will be valuable reference materials for your practice.

Network

Known for its friendly atmosphere, the conference affords a rare opportunity for open and constructive debate among a diverse group of planning professionals at all stages in their careers. Expand your network, catch up with old friends and colleagues, and enjoy a genuine exchange of ideas.

Enjoy

The JPLC is held in the beautiful surroundings of Oxford, with accommodation in the University's New College and conference activities taking place in the Oxford Union Debating Chamber. The programme includes drinks receptions, two black-tie dinners, and time to explore the city.

Why attend the JPLC?

- The UK's leading annual planning law conference
- Excellent speakers deliver topical research papers
- Ideal for planning professionals at all career stages
- A multi-disciplinary planning committee ensures highquality content relevant to all delegates
- A 50% scholarship scheme for recently-qualified delegates (12 places available - 3 per profession)
- CPD is available
- Friendly, informal networking opportunities
- Beautiful Oxford University setting

"Fantastic venue and consistently superb quality of speakers, the JPLC is a 'must-attend' for anyone currently involved with planning and development in the UK."
